

1904-041 Chancery Causes: J. G. McFarland vs. Thean McFarland
Lee Co.

Belcher, Owens, Waller, Bell

CA-Divorce
T-Vices

To the Hon. N. A. W. Sken, Judge of the Circuit Court of Lee Co., Va.

Your orator, J. G. McFarland humbly complaining shows unto your honor that he is a citizen of Jasper, Lee Co Va and has been domiciled in said County and State the last twelve months preceding the institution of this suit; that in the year ~~18~~⁶⁹ - he married one Thea - and for a while lived happily with her, but not long, as she became quarrelsome and abusive to your orator, borrowed a pistol and threatened "to blow out your orator's brains", threatened to poison your orator, and destroy what property he had.
Your orator lived in a perpetual fear and dread, and is yet.

Your orator further shows his wife Thea has deserted him and wilfully abandoned him, Your orator further shows and here charges, that his wife Thea in addition to all the above charges and misconduct, has committed adultery within the last five years at divers times by having sexual intercourse with men not her husband. Your orator, and since they were married, without the connivance or procurement, wish or consent of Your orator. Your orator has not cohabited with his wife Thora since her acts of adultery came to his knowledge, nor since she wilfully deserted and abandoned him. Your orator lived true and is still living true to his marriage vows, and was at all times kind to his wife and provided for her as far as he was able, until he found she was not true to him, was committing adultery, and living such a notorious life. Your orator further charges that she is a dangerous woman and his life was in daily peril while she ~~staid~~ lived with him, and while she was making threats of pistol, poison and butcher knives against Your orator she was there living her double adulterous life, as Your orator afterwards learned.

Your ~~an~~ orator last cohabited with his wife Thean in Lee County, Virginia, The premises considered, the prayer of your orator is therefore that Thean McFarland be made a party defendant to this bill, that she be required to answer the same but not oath; that is waives; and upon a hearing, your honor will grant your orator a divorce dissolving the bonds of matrimony now and heretofore existing between your orator and his wife Thean, and if mistaken in any way as to his relief sought your orator prays for all such other, further, and general relief as suits his case and as to equity is meet and proper.
May Court. With Respe issue and your orator will ever pray.

I am just in receipt of yours of 13th, and also your other letter which I answered. The decree is all right, but the decree alone is not sufficient. What you want is a transcript of the whole record (not including the depositions, or other proof, however) but what we call the record of the case, which is:-

- 1- ^{copy of} The bill, or declaration, as they call it there,
- 2- ^{copy} The process- but in this case it would be a copy of the order of publication, and the publication itself as it appeared in the newspaper.
- 3- Copy of every order made in the case, either at Rules, or in term time of Court.
- 4- Copy of the decree.
- 5- Clerk's certificate, with seal attached, that it is "a true and perfect transcript of the record of the case of J. G. McFarland vs Phene McFarland, as"
